I want to make a official call and ask the other person whether he is free or not at that particular time. I think asking, "Are you free now?" does't sound formal. So, are there any ...

1 " Free " absolutely means "free from any sorts constraints or controls. The context determines its different denotations, if any, as in "free press", "fee speech", "free stuff" etc.

Similarly, "free education" is funded by the state (which is ultimately financed by taxpayers) and taught in state-run schools called state schools whereas schools that charge ...

If so, my analysis amounts to a rule in search of actual usage--a prescription rather than a description. In any event, the impressive rise of "free of" against "free from" over ...
