Besides, the point I was trying to make is that value is not the same as price - a TV bought at a discount might be worth more than was paid for it, and might hence be valuable ...

The preposition "OF" is used here to indicate that the price belongs to/is used in relation with prices of spare parts. Now, the definition of "FOR" as a preposition- For Used to ...

"A price on" connotes "a price set/levied on" (probably not the actual words) and is more seller-orientated. "The price for" is nuanced less towards the involvement of the seller, ...

Price point means a point on a scale of possible prices at which something might be marketed; its meaning is different from the meaning of price, which is (principally, but not only) ...
